Subject: Big Thank You! MECC 2020 December 1, 2020 "Election Review and What it Means for Compliance and Enforcement" :: Panel Discussion on Day One

All:

A huge "Thank You" for a great panel discussion. What a fantastic start to the day. I have received some very good reviews on the program and in particular this session. I had a high bar for this panel and you met it with room to spare.

I am grateful for your participation and expertise. All the more appreciative since this event took a lot more heavy lifting by all of us to make it work!

I was also frankly very impressed by our contractor LP Creative. They have been in the visual production business (ads, weddings, concerts, etc.) for years ... and like everyone have had to do a bit of reinvention. Here's something a bit ironic. After all the effort to host this event in Kansas City, we ended up doing the production in St. Louis where LP Creative has their main production studio (totally amazing studio by the way!)

Have a great end of year. Stay safe. And I wish us all a speedy return to something more normal.

Dave Cozad: I sure hope you are an active part of the transition effort! I imagine it's a hard, thankless task but you would be invaluable in the effort.

Cheers! And early Happy Holidays!

Thanks. Mary Nichols isn't surprising. She's been mentioned a lot. The other two, less so. I am not as familiar with them.
